Dead Drunk for Sure.

An intelligent policeman in this city last week saw a man lying prostrate on the sidewalk, and at once determined that he was drunk. He telephoned for the patrol wagon, into which the "unfortunate" was hustled and conveyed to the nearest police station. It took three men to "stand him up" against the clerk's desk, when the "intelligent policeman" charged him with being drunk, and remarked that he was the deadest drunk he ever saw. It was soon discovered that he was not drunk, but dead, and that he had been dead for hours.

Hundreds of cases are of record where men charged with drunkenness and thrown into cells should have been placed in the hospital, and received immediate and careful treatment for apoplexy, epilepsy, and like affections; but the case recorded is the first we have heard of in which a man stone dead was charged with being drunk.—Star.

A Libel On Senator Reddy.

Ex-States Senator Patrick Reddy affectionately called Pat by his friends, of whom there are legions, has first rate cause for libel against the Mountain Democrat for publishing an advertisement from which the following is an extract:

Breed for size, speed and gameness.
PAT REDDY—RECORD, 2:44

Pat Reddy is a seal brown, weight, 1360 pounds, height, 16 hands 1 inch, and can show a 2:20 gait without training.

The remainder of the advertisement is unfit for publication in a Sacramento newspaper.—Bee.

Arrangements have been made with the Virginia & Truckee and Carson & Colorado Railroad Companies for an excursion rate, to all members of the Order and their ladies, of one fare for the round trip from all points on their roads, to Reno and return. Beck vs. Thompson.

The Supreme Court in the case of H. H. Beck vs. William Thompson handed down an opinion reversing the decision of Judge Cheney.

The case was tried last summer in the District Court and involved a settlement of the milling business of Lake & Beck and the milling business of H. H. Beck & Co. The decision of Judge Cheney assessed damages against the defendant, Wm. Thompson, to the amount of over four thousand.

The attorneys in the case were R. M. Clarke for respondent and Wm. Webster for appellant.

The Nevada Building.

The Journal has it upon reliable authority that the Nevada building at the Midwinter Fair will not be closed on the 15th, as reported. General Powning went up to Virginia City Thursday for the purpose of seeing what could be done towards raising the necessary funds to continue the exhibit until the fair closes, and it is understood got about $700 pledged.

A new rifle has been adopted by the U. S. Government, called the Craig Jorgensen rifle. The infantry will be furnished first, and as fast as possible the cavalry will be supplied with the same arm. It only weighs eight pounds and will kill a man at the distance of two miles. It is a breech loader and has a magazine that will carry five cartridges. The ball has a speed of 2,000 feet per second, and with smokeless powder, with which it will be charged, it is claimed that the bullet will kill a man before the sound of the discharge reaches him.

ICE.

Order your pure clear Carson River ice from Doctor Benton. All orders will be promptly attended to.
m8 J. M. BENTON.

The School Board has purchased of W. J. Westerfield what is known as the Powning block on Second street for school purposes. The consideration was $5,000. It is unfortunate that the school fund will not permit the building of a new school-house, as it would give employment to mechanics and others who are in need of work.—Journal.
